SUPPLEMENTAL DECLARATION OF GARRETTSON ELLIS UNDER 37 CFR 1.131

I, Garrettson Ellis, hereby declare:

1. This declaration is supplemental to my Declaration dated November 28, 2005 which was filed in the above identified application. A copy of my November 28, 2005 Declaration is attached as Exhibit A.

2. In paragraph 9 of my Declaration, I point out that I was diligent in preparing the P-699 patent application draft. I state in my November 28, 2005 Declaration that "during the months of September 2001 and October 2001, I had a heavy docket with numerous patent applications and amendments to prepare which I believe I took up in proper order."

3. I consider "proper order" in taking up patent applications to be roughly the order in which the invention disclosure is received for preparation of an application. Ordinarily I prepare patent applications in approximately the sequential order that the invention disclosures are received by me. In addition to preparing patent applications, I prosecute such applications including preparing responses to Office Actions.

4. As I stated in my previous declaration, during the month of September 2001 and October 2001, I had a heavy docket with numerous patent applications and amendments to prepare. As my records show, I did not delay the preparation of the P-699 patent application. The patent application is a 17 page patent application (excluding the drawings). At the same time I had other applications on my docket. The records clearly show that I was diligent in the preparation of the draft of the patent application.

5. Specifically, my billing records indicate the following activities with respect to preparation of the P-699 patent application during the months of September, 2001 and October, 2001:

A. On September 5, 2001, I studied the invention disclosure of P-699. I attempted to call Mr. Bhatka; I drafted some claims; and I studied the situation relative to the patent drawing.

B. On September 6, 2001, I planned the drawing for this present case P 699. Also, I dictated a partial draft of the application.

C. On September 10, 2001, I reviewed and revised eight pages of the draft application.

D. On September 11, 2001, I further reviewed and revised the draft application, which was then 15 pages long, and sent it for secretarial correction.

E. On September 14, 2001, I further reviewed and revised the 15 page application, and communicated with the patent draftsman.

F. On September 19, 2001, I communicated with the draftsman again relative to the drawing in question.

G. On October 9, 2001, after reviewing the file I had a telephone conference on that day with Mr. Bhatka about details concerning the invention.

H. On October 12, 2001, I again reviewed the application and revised it. I also drafted a letter forwarding the draft application including the drawing from the draftsman, to Mr. Bhatka for review.

I. On October 16, I had a declaration and assignment prepared, and I reviewed the application papers with IGT's billing attorney, George Gerstman. My billing records indicate that the papers were forwarded to Mr. Bhatka via Federal Express on October 16 although my letter is dated October 15..

I hereby declare that all statements made herein of my knowledge are true and that all statements made on information and belief are believed to be true; and further that statements were made with the knowledge that willful false statements and the like so made are punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, under Section 1001 of Title 18 United States Code and that such willful false statements may jeopardize the validity of the application or any patent issued thereon.

DECLARATION OF GARRETTSON ELLIS UNDER 37 C.F.R. §1.131

I, Garrettson Ellis, hereby declare:

1. I am a registered patent attorney at the law firm of Seyfarth Shaw LLP, 55 East Monroe Street, Suite 4200, Chicago, Illinois 60603.

2. I am the patent attorney who prepared the above identified patent application.

3. On July 5, 2001, a Patent Request submitted by the applicant Rakesh Bhakta was printed at IGT. The Patent Request discloses a gaming machine using smart cards and involves the storage of a set of fingerprints on a smart card or other type of player tracking card. It also discloses the use of fingerprint scanners enclosed within the play buttons on the gaming machines (i.e., cash out, max bet, hold buttons). When the smart card is inserted and the patron pushes a button, the scanner in the buttons scans the finger and compares that image with the one stored in the smart card to determine if the player matches the smart card. A copy of the Patent Request display, showing that it was disclosed to David Oles by the inventor and submitted on June 26, 2001, is attached as Exhibit 1. Exhibit 1 also shows, on the bottom of both pages, that the Patent Request display was printed on July 5, 2001.

4. On August 22, 2001, one of the patent attorneys working with me, George H. Gerstman, received a fax from IGT, Mr. Bhakta's employer. The fax included a copy of the Patent Request (Exhibit 1) for Mr. Gerstman's review. A redacted copy of the August 22, 2001 fax and enclosure is attached as Exhibit 2.

5. Between August 22, 2001 and August 27, 2001, I reviewed the invention disclosure sent to Mr. Gerstman and I mailed to IGT a letter in that regard dated August 27, 2001. A redacted copy of this letter is attached as Exhibit 3. My letter concerned invention record P-699, which is the invention record of the instant application and which also corresponds to the IGT docket number of the instant application.

6. On August 31, 2001, Lena Van Asdale, a patent attorney at IGT, sent me an email advising me to prepare a patent application on the P-699 invention disclosure. A copy of this email is attached as Exhibit 4.

7. On September 15, 2001, Lena Van Asdale sent an email to the inventor regarding the patent application. On September 17, 2001, the inventor sent Ms. Van Asdale a responding email and later that day on September 17, the inventor sent an additional email to Ms. Van Asdale concerning the patent application. A copy of the September 15 and September 17, 2001 emails is attached as Exhibit 5.

8. Between August 31, 2001 and October 15, 2001, I prepared a draft patent application and on October 15, 2001, I enclosed the copy of the draft patent application to the inventor. A copy of my October 15, 2001 letter to the inventor (without the enclosure) is attached as Exhibit 6.

9. I was diligent in preparing the P-699 patent application draft. During the month of September 2001 and October 2001, I had a heavy docket with numerous patent applications and amendments to prepare which I believe I took up in proper order.

10. Between October 15, 2001 and November 8, 2001, the inventor reviewed the draft patent application and provided comments, which were sent to me on November 8, 2001. A copy of the November 8, 2001 letter sending me comments and revisions to the application (without the enclosure) is attached as Exhibit 7.

11. On November 19, 2001, the inventor sent me an email relating to information pertinent to the invention. A copy of the inventor's November 19, 2001 email is attached as Exhibit 8.

12. On November 20, 2001, I sent to the inventor a revised draft of the patent application, responsive to his comments and to a telephone conversation. A copy of my November 20, 2001 letter is attached as Exhibit 9. With the letter and revised patent application, I also attached a Declaration and Power of Attorney, plus an Assignment, for execution by the inventor.

13. On December 6, 2001, the inventor executed the Assignment. A copy of the Assignment is attached as Exhibit 10. Between November 21 and December 18, 2001, the inventor reviewed the application and signed the Declaration on December 18, 2001. A copy of the signed Declaration, dated December 18, 2001, is attached as Exhibit 11.

14. Immediately after the Christmas/New Year holidays, on January 2, IGT sent to me the executed patent application paper for filing. A copy of Ms. DiMino's January 2, 2002 letter is attached as Exhibit 12. It can be seen on Exhibit 12 that Mr. Gerstman at Seyfarth Shaw acknowledged the receipt of these documents on January 3, 2002.

15. On January 7, 2002, Mr. Gerstman prepared the transmittal documents and Express Mail Certificate and the patent application was filed at the U.S. PTO on that date. The date of January 7, 2002, constitutes a constructive reduction to practice of the application.

I hereby declare that all statements made herein of my knowledge are true and that all statements made on information and belief are believed to be true; and further that statements were made with the knowledge that willful false statements and the like so made are punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, under Section 1001 of Title 18 United States Code and that such willful false statements may jeopardize the validity of the application or any patent issued thereon.

Background BACKGROUND OF INVENTION to make it possible for a casino to keep a track of players using a gaming machine by using the smart card on a player tracking unit or gaming machine

Advantages ADVANTAGES ACHIEVED BY INVENTION The idea would enhance the use of smart cards when players use smart cards to play credits on a gaming machine particularly in areas where no security measures exist between the player and the game by having a non intrusive record of a patron playing at a gaming machine and being able to record that presence for future reference.

Comments The invention involves the storage of a set of finger prints on a smart card or other type of player tracking card. Also the use of finger print scanners enclosed within the play buttons on a gaming machine. (i.e cashout, max bet, hold buttons) when the smart card is inserted and the patron pushes a button the scanner in the button scans the finger and compares that image with the one stored in the smart card to determine if the player matches the smart card. The finger print images scanned may be recorded and kept for legal comparison at a later time.

Re: New Invention Record P 699 and case P 220

Dear Lena:

You wrote George on August 22, 2001 asking him to review the invention disclosure P 699 and application P 220, and George handed it on to me.

I think Mr. Bhakta does disclose something new in his invention record P 699: particularly his suggestion of putting fingerprint scanners within the play buttons on a gaming machine. Thus, the identity of the player is automatically confirmed as against the identity on the smart card the person is using.
